ANNOUNCEMENTS

Trunk or Treat is TODAY! Come at 2:30, wear a costume, and prepare your trunk / parking site to receive our guests and share your candy!

Newsletter folding on Tuesday at 10:00 a.m. Thank you to any who can volunteer to assist!

Music @ 1 is an hour of live music and commentary presented by local musician Sam Black (occasionally joined by musical guests) in our sanctuary, no cost, Thursdays 1:00-2:00 p.m. This week's program: John Keats and Musical Romanticism.

This year's intergenerational Christmas program is looking for ... YOU! Readings, skits and music will all be a part of the experience. Practice is December 9, presentation is December 16. Sign up in the narthex, or see Lori Amundson with questions.

MN Citizens Federation, a nonprofit whose mission is economic justice, is offering Medicare classes to help seniors understand the system with clear, straight facts, so you can select the plan you need and potentially save significantly. Seminars will be offered at Hope UMC on Nov. 1 at 7:00 pm, and on Nov. 5 and 19 at 2:00 p.m. Fee of $25 per household covers full handouts. To register for a seminar, call 727-0207 or email admin@citizensfed.org.
